Result of State Cup Semi Final Played 3rd June

1st Grade defeated St Barnabas 4-1 at Jones Park

First Grade has made it through to the Final of the State Cup Knock Out competition with a 4-1 win over last season's Premier League and State Cup Champions St Barnabas.

Mat James opened the scoring for Lidcombe after only 90 seconds when he caught the keeper off his line.

Tom Pavlek then scored for Lidcombe after a defensive mix up from St Barnabas.

The second half saw the defending champions come out firing and score early. This seemed to strengthen the Congs resolve.

Stephen James scored a cracking volley when he found himself unmarked on the back post from a corner and Adam Lo finished a well worked move down the Congs left side to bring the final score to 4-1.

This was 1st Grade's best performance of the season against a tough opposition.

Best players on the night were Stephen James, Evan Hart and Adam Lo.

The upcoming final will see Lidcombe take on the current Premier League leaders Coptic United at Jones Park on Thursday 11th June.
