Results of Competition Matches Played 11th July

Under 7's defeated OLQP (Blue) 5-3 at Phillips Park

Under 9's (Blue) defeated Guildford McCredie (White) 5-1 at Everley Park

This was the much-anticipated match between the competition leaders. Both teams came into the game undefeated, and with decent for & against goal statistics.

When the young Congs arrived at Everley Park early on that misty morning, a McCredie opposition player (their goalkeeper) welcomed them with the question, "Are you ready to be beaten?". History will show that the Congs replied to that challenge in the best possible way - on the field, by producing an emphatic 5-1 win.

It must be said that the Guildford team played very well, they placed considerable pressure on the Congs team throughout the entire match. However solid Congs defence, as well as some outstanding goalkeeping by Anthony Mubarik, stopped Guildford in their tracks.

The Congs team made more of their opportunities, and produced some very impressive positional play, running, passing and finishing. It was also evident to the spectators that the Congs team surpassed the opposition in commitment and effort - every Congs player had their best game of the season so far. Goals in this match came from Hissham and Anthony Mylonas, and from a clever corner by Jethro which took a deflection along the way.

Thank you to two of the U9s, Okej and Sailesh, who played a full match at Everley with the Congs U10 side, which was short of players.

Each and every Under 9 Congs player put in a spectacular effort in Round 12.

Well done team, and well done to the parents and supporters who created an enjoyable and positive atmosphere at this game.

Under 9's (Gold) match was postponed

Under 10's lost 3-4 to Guildford McCredie (White) at Everley Park

Lidcombe Under 10's lost to Guildford McCredie 3-4 simply because only six players turned up to the ground.

We were lucky to be able to borrow two players from the Under 9's otherwise we would have had to forfeit the match.

Lidcombe took the lead in the first minute when Yaman Pahari scored.

Lidcombe took the lead three times in the match but Guildford were able to come back every time.

Unfortunately two minutes before the game finished Guildford scored the winning goal as a result of our inexperienced defensive line up and less number of players.

In the middle Sweekar and Donato perform really well and were very busy trying to stop the opposition.

Yaman Pahari did wonderful job playing striker, scoring a hat trick.

Overall it was a good fight from Lidcombe with only six regular players.

Thank you to Okej and Sailesh from the Under 9's for your tremendous effort. Without you we would not have been able to play.

Under 11's defeated Hills Spirit (White) 2-0 at Phillips Park

Under 12's lost 3-4 to Hills Spirit at Kellyville Memorial Park

The Under 12's were out played by Hills Spirit in a match they could have easily won if we had all our players turn up!

Anthony Nyoon and Edwin Akol combined well upfront with Anthony scoring two goals and Edwin one. Titus Kwon inspired the team playing through pain while Joshua Kattan and Danial Ali had good games.

Under 13's lost 0-1 to St Columbas at Phillips Park

Under 14's drew 0-0 with Regents Park at Princes Park

Under 15's drew 1-1 with Granville Waratah at Robin Thomas Reserve

Reserve Grade had a BYE

1st Grade defeated Strathfield 2-0 at St Lukes Oval

First Grade had a very sloppy win against Strathfield.

It was just one of those game where the harder the team tried the worse we played. Passes couldn't find a team mate and our first touch was poor.

Our defence was still very strong as it has been all season which was what won us this match.

Goal scorers were Mat James and super sub Daniel 'Frank ' James.
