Results of Competition Matches Played 1st August

Under 7's defeated Wentworthville Uniting (White) 15-0 at Phillips Park

Under 9's (Blue) defeated Guildford McCredie (Red) 9-0 at Everley Park

The Under 9 Blue team had a solid win in Round 15. The defenders all did their job well, blocking the Guildford attack and feeding the ball quickly forward. Goals went to Sailesh, Jethro, Hissham (4) and Anthony Mylonas (3). Some good goalkeeping by the Guildford keeper (who was selected for the NSW CFA U9 South Zone team to play in goals) kept out a few more.

The Congs passing combinations and player positioning were executed well, and as usual, there was excellent running and field coverage by the midfielders and strikers.

At this stage of the season, the amount of commitment, focus and effort shown by players at training and in competition matches, as well as skills and fitness, are all important considerations made by the coach, when selecting the run-on team. As the finals are approaching, each player needs to keep putting his best foot forward and making his contribution to the team. In this Round 15 game, it was pleasing to see all players doing this.

Thank you once again to parents and supporters for your positive attitude and encouragement of the team, and for making the matches enjoyable for players and spectators.

Under 9's (Gold) lost 0-9 to Guildford McCredie Uniting (White) at Phillips Park

Under 10's defeated Hills Spirit (White) 3-0 at Kellyville Memorial Park

Even two players short Lidcombe Congs had an easy 3-0 win over Hills Spirit (White).

The Hills players couldn't get past our defensive line up for the whole game, our goalkeeper did not have a chance to touch a ball at all.

Centre midfield and captain Sweekar was controlling the game and putting pressure on the opposition with his long range passing to his team mates.

Yehye scored a hat trick for the team with great support from Aydan and Yaman.

Gabriel did an outstanding job in the centre of defence. Good team work from the Congos to dominate the match and win .

Under 11's lost 1-2 to OLQP (Red) at Daniel St Park

Under 12's lost 2-5 to Wentworthville Uniting at Phillips Park

The Under 12's were outplayed by first placed Wentworthville going down 2-5 at Phillips Park.

In a poor first half Lidcombe conceded after only two minutes from a blatantly off side goal.

Still in shock from the poor decision to allow the goal Lidcombe conceded another goal straight from the kick off.

Two further Wentworthville goals saw the Congs down 0-4 at half time.

The second half saw Lidcombe play in a manner more fitting their ability.

Anthony scored after nine minutes then Wentworthville put the game out of reach for Lidcombe when they scored with five minutes remaining in the match.

Kogulan scored for Lidcombe with two minutes remaining in the game as Lidcombe fought hard right to the end.

The second half performance can give Lidcombe some hope of turning their season around but with only two games remaining all the no shows and dropped points earlier in the season are proving very costly.

Under 13's lost 0-2 to Guildford McCredie Uniting (14) at Phillips Park

Under 14's defeated Lidcombe Waratah 4-0 at Coleman Park

Under 15's drew 0-0 with Castle United at Fred Caterson Reserve

Reserve Grade defeated South Creek 3-1 at Phillips Park

First Grade drew 2-2 with Zimwarriors at Phillips Park

Results of Competition Matches Played 2nd August

Under 14's defeated Ermington United 2-1 at Phillips Park

Under 15's lost 0-1 to Guildford McCredie Uniting at Phillips Park
