RESULTS OF MATCHES PLAYED 30TH APRIL 2016.

Under 7's (Blue) defeated Under 7's (Gold) 10-0 at Phillips Park

Under 8's defeated OLQP (Blue) 2-0 at Phillips Park

Under 10's lost 1-3 to Hills Spirit at Kellyville Park

The Under 10's team effort was more cohesive this week and as a result they were more competitive. Team members are developing a better understanding of their positions on the field and positioning relative to each other.

The Lidcombe team is also starting to make better use of the overall space on the field (U10s is the first year of playing on a full size pitch), noting that some improvement is still needed in the spacing players maintain between each other.

Soccer is a running game, it was pleasing to see a number of players putting in a full effort during their time on the field. It was also good to see shots at goal from a variety of Lidcombe players, and the Lidcombe defenders put in a solid effort. Lidcombe's goal came in the second half when Sivanujan (defender) intercepted a pass towards a Hills forward at half way. Sivanujan's pass to Mou was relayed to Vithushan, who made a clever pass to Tito. Tito then took the ball forward to the edge of the box, he saw his chance and with a big strike from his left foot slammed the ball into the back of the net.

This goal was a good demonstration by the Lidcombe team of the value of team work, passing, player positioning, supporting each other and strong finishing.

Ultimately Hills won the match because they maintained more intensity (willingness to keep running) for the entire match, and so they were able to convert more of their chances towards the end of the game.

Although the Lidcombe team did not win on this occasion, their effort in playing fairly, and producing a competitive match is commendable.

Well done to all players for the improvements you have made.

Thanks also to parents and supporters for making the trip to Kellyville.

Under 11's defeated OLQP (Blue) 4-0 at Phillips Park

Under 12's had a BYE

Under 14-3's defeated Dundas United (White) 1-0 at Curtis Oval

The 14-3's kept their undefeated run going with a 1-0 win away from home against Dundas United (White).

In a tense game two evenly matched teams battled it out to see the score remain dead locked 0-0 at half time.

The second half saw the Congs rise to the challenge and take out the win thanks to a penalty goal from Abraham Hamdan.

Under 14-4's lost 0-7 to Auburn District at Progress Park

Under 15's defeated Guildford McCredie 5-4 at Everley Park

Reserve Grade lost 0-2 to St Barnabas at Tempe Reserve

First Grade lost 1-3 to St Barnabas at Tempe Reserve

Already missing several players through injury, suspension and illness, the Congs bad luck continued losing two players in the first twenty minutes through injury.

St Barnabas scored after 30mins but it didn't take long for Lidcombe to fight back with a goal to Andreas Correa.

At half time the Congs were hopeful of snatching an unlikely draw but unfortunately fatigue set in with St Barnabas scoring two further unanswered goals. While the whole team played well special mention to Daniel Murti, Jayden Hughes, Will Courtwood, Steven May and Sergei Mishkarudny for filling in after already playing in the Reserve Grade match.
