Under 11's (Gold) defeated Kings Old Boys 11-2 at Homelands Reserve

The Under 11 Gold and Kings Old Boys teams met on a pleasant Autumn day at a leafy venue for some match practice.	their positive attitude and for the sportsmanship they showed in this game.	variety of scorers.
Our thanks go to the coach and players from Kings Old Boys for proceeding with the match. Both teams are also to be commended for	In the second half JJ and JC swapped sides to play with the Kings team, which evened up the numbers. There were quite a few goals on the day, mostly to Lidcombe, with a	Good signs for the Lidcombe team were their ability to use their field positions intelligently, accurate passing, fast determined attack and solid defence. Well done to all involved.

Under 12's defeated Wenty Waratah 13-0 at Ted Burge Sportsground

This past Saturday saw a great effort from the team who played with a dominant win over Wenty Waratah. The first half saw Timothy, Yaman and Hisham tear through the defence, while the whole team worked well to stop any attacks that Wenty would try.	This set a large lead by half time and in the second half, the defenders came up and continued to score goals with Anthony and Daniel scoring one each as well as Stephanie scoring a penalty. The Coach would like to thank everyone who played and put in a	good effort. BUT only eight players turning up is not good enough, we were lucky that they had nine players. Hopefully now that the school holidays are over we will, at a minimum, have a full team of eleven to play this week.

Under 14's lost 3-6 to Wentworthville Uniting at Jones Park

Goals— Kogulan Senthurchelvan (2) & Timothy Yoon

Under 15's lost 11-0 to Pendle Hill at Phillips Park

With the majority of the team having never played together before and coming up against a strong Pendle Hill side, Lidcombe were given a rude welcome to division 1 football.	Lidcombe tried hard for the whole game and never gave up. With hard work at training and the return of a few key players results for the team will improve in the coming weeks.	Best performers this week were Philemon Kwon, Mariam Margan, Jacob Sabbagh and Joseph Boutros.

All Age Mens Reserve Grade lost 0-3 to St Mathews (Red) at Green Up Park

All Age Mens First Grade lost 2-3 to St Mathews (Red) at Green Up Park

RESULTS OF MATCHES PLAYED 23RD APRIL 2017.

All Age Ladies lost 0-11 to Lidcombe Waratah at Binalong Oval

On a very hot Sunday afternoon the Congs All Age Ladies side took to the field not knowing what to expect against local rivals Lidcombe Waratah.

From the opening whistle it was clear that our opposition had far more experience and a higher standard of players right across the park.

The Congs Ladies did not let this affect them and went about playing to the best of their abilities and making sure they had fun along the way.

We improved as the match went on and all eleven Congs ladies should be commended for lasting a full 90mins on such a hot day against a side who had four reserves. We will only improve from here.

Best players this week were Maria Amarille, Enya Groom, Felicia Debreczeni and Captain ,Joanne Nieradka.

RESULTS OF MATCHES PLAYED 25TH APRIL 2017.

All Age Mens Reserve Grade lost 1-3 to Kings Old Boys at Phillips Park

All Age Mens First Grade defeated Kings Old Boys 4-3 at Phillips Park
