The Under 11 Gold team won this match well, as a result of good defence, each player maintaining their correct positioning, and because the team used their passes well. Movement off the ball by the Lidcombe team presented options to the player with the ball, and lead to many scoring opportunities.

Each player had a great game and should be pleased with their effort. Numair's hat-trick of goals in this match was something special, he had an outstanding game, congratulations also to Sean whose reliable striker skills saw him pick up another two fine goals. Hissham's efforts also produced a goal, the whole team showed what they are capable of in this match. Our thanks go to Wentworthville for providing a volunteer referee for the occasion, the good sportsmanship they displayed is very much appreciated, they are great ambassadors for the Wentworthville Uniting Club.
