RESULTS OF MATCHES PLAYED 14TH APRIL 2018.

Under 6's lost 1-7 to St Columbas (Black) at Phillips Park

This week saw the first match of the season for our Under 6 team with a few of the players taking the field for the first time, including a man of the match performance from Adi.

The team showed plenty of excitement and energy with lots of running for most of the first half. This ended up being the team's downfall however, when one of the quicker and more skilled players from St Columbas (Black) was able to dribble the ball through our tiring defence for a few brilliant individual goals.

This left the score at half time to be 0 – 4 which was a true reflection of their first half dominance.

With our kick off for the second half there was a chance for the team to grab a goal back! Brilliant passing from Olivia and Zachary resulted in Zachary having our first shot for the match.

Despite missing this chance, Zachary stayed up field and intercepted the goal kick and scored a well-earned goal for his efforts.

Unfortunately, this was the only goal

we scored for the game due to the team running themselves tired.

A special mention to our goal keeper and captain for the match (Rithul) who had many brilliant goal line saves from very strong shots.

This leaves plenty of areas for improvement and promise for the team who kept defending until the final whistle with passing and defending being key areas of focus for training this week.

Under 7's Blue defeated Kings Old Boys 5-1 at Phillips Park

Goals- Uche Imoh (3), Joseph Azzi (2)

Under 7's Gold lost 3-5 to Guildford McCredie (White) at Phillips Park

Goals- Abednego Birgen , Christopher LaRosa, Own Goal

Under 9's lost 1-2 to Wentworthville Uniting (Gold) at Phillips Park

Goals- Sachin Barath

Under 10's defeated St Columbas (Black) 20-0 at Phillips Park

Goals- Cooper Smith (13), Alexander Kim (3), Kyrill Zubkov (3), Freno Agen (1)

Under 12's defeated Newington Gunners 2-1 at Phillips Park

The Lidcombe Under 12 side played consistently well in this match, their passing, running and support play saw a number of shots made by them in the first ten minutes, which also saw some interesting decisions such as a Lidcombe player being called offside when directly receiving the ball from a throw-in. It was therefore not so surprising when the Newington team scored against the run of play with a (kick) pass that was made to a Newington player who was clearly offside.

The Lidcombe side to their credit did not let this affect them, they kept up their style of play and the pressure, and a few minutes later the team was rewarded with the equaliser.

A throw in from JJ found Lachlan, he centred the ball to JC, who steered the ball into the back of the net.

In the second half, with the score at 1 -1 the game became increasingly physical, with Lachlan leaving the field after the opposition discovered they could constantly target him without any consequence (e.g. restart from drop-ball instead of a free kick as would normally apply). Again the team focussed on the game, and in doing so produced a great goal.

A clearance from Kulpreet reached Zack, who brought the ball upfield before passing to Vithushan.

The ball was then forwarded to JC, centred back to Vithushan, then JC again, a perfect pass was made to Joel who burst past the last Newington defender and made a straight run to goal. He then scored with a kick over the Newington keeper. Joel's first goal for Lidcombe was a great effort both by him and by the team. Lid-combe deserved this win as they played a better and fairer game.

Under 13's had a BYE

The Under 13's team played a friendly match against an Auburn FC Under 12 team who also had a BYE. Unfortunately only 9 players turned up for Lidcombe which resulted in a big loss. The coach put in a HUGE effort to organize this match for the team. It is extremely disappointing that people can not be bothered turning up or informing the coach or manager that they cannot make it.

Under 15's lost 2-5 to Pendle Hill (White) at Phillips Park

Goals- Henry Hung, Tom Ryan

Under 18's defeated Greystanes FC 3-0 at Phillips Park

Goals- Daniel Pham, Kennu Challenger, Kenny Yin

All Age Men Reserve Grade lost 0-1 to Kings Old Boys (White) at Phillips Park

All Age Men First Grade lost 2-4 to Kings Old Boys (White) at Phillips Park

Goals- Matthew Hyde, Marcus Pinson

RESULTS OF MATCHES PLAYED 15TH APRIL 2018.

All Age Ladies Div 5 lost 1-12 to Oakville United at Binalong Oval

Goals- Amber Gunn

All Age Ladies Div 4 defeated Plumpton Oakhurst 5-3 at Hanna Reserve

As with the previous outing, this match started with the opposition establishing a lead before the Lidcombe team (with ten players on the field) could set up any sort of rhythm. With a strong gusty wind making the path of ball occasionally unpredictable, Plumpton first scored from a free kick straight into goal, then again after a good attacking play saw their striker put the ball past the keeper. Lidcombe did get on the scoreboard in the first half with a goal to Felicia, but Plumpton responded to make it 3-1. In the second half the wind abated and the game turned around. With a full team plus one reserve, and aided by their strong defensive line, Lidcombe worked out how to get the ball forward to their strikers, who had the strength, stamina, determination and skills to put away four unanswered goals against a tiring opposition. With a hat trick of goals (3) to Felicia and two goals to Jariatu (Jay Jay) this fight back to win was something special, and was great to watch. If in their upcoming games the team can also play their first half in the same way as they have been playing in the second half, they will be a force to be reckoned with in the competition.
